

Ginghams and Percales

This season there are two grades of Ginghams to sell for 10c—two qualities to sell for 12 1-2c, also two grades of Percales to sell for 12 1-2c.

Our policy is—The best possible grades to be found in any line of goods is none to good for us or our customers, even though they may cost a cent to five cents a yard more.

More Than Three Thousand Yards of the newest and prettiest styles in Ginghams from 10c to 25c per yard are now on our counters.

More Than One Thousand Yards of the entirely new patterns in the best 36 inch Percale ever put on the market at 12 1-2c.

What's to be Gained by Waiting?

You won't have a larger assortment to select from this year and it's the best time to do sewing when you can't get out on account of the cold or the walking.

The groom is a granite cutter.

A young man driving a young horse furnished an exhibition of pluck on Main street late Saturday afternoon when, after being tipped out of his sleigh while crossing the street car track, he clung to the reins and was dragged through the slush for a hundred yards until he brought the colt down to a slow canter, so that a pedestrian rushed out and finished the work. The trip over the ground rather dazed the young man, but he was not injured.

There is a beautiful drama, entitled, "Under Northern Skies," and is without doubt one of the best dramatic pictures ever made by the Edison Co. This is a story of the Canadian woods. Two comrades in love with the same girl, one commits murder, his guilt is first discovered by his comrade, who tries to shield him and leaves evidence that causes his own arrest. His love for his comrade is so great that he determines still to shield him until a guilty conscience makes things right. This and two other features is the program at the Theatrum to-day.
